THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE SCIENTIFIC MIRACLES IN THE QUR'AN AND SUNNAH / ISTANBUL, TURKEY

Sultan Muhammad Al-Fateh University, Faculty of Islamic Sciences, is organizing the International Conference of the Scientific Miracles in the Qur'an and Sunnah in Istanbul/ Turkey, with the participation of the Iraqi Fiqh Aggregator, the UMAD Foundation, the Association of Imams and Preachers of Iraq, and the Commission of the Scientific Miracles in the Qur'an and Sunnah in the Kingdom of Morocco, which participates in this congress with its ninth edition.

The conference organizers take advantage of inviting sheikhs, scholars, university professors and students in various fields of science and knowledge in both human and scientific studies and pure sciences to enrich the discussion related to the development of the subject of miracles in all its divisions.

This scientific and knowledge demonstration is added to the sum of previous local and international events held in this field, which aims at providing a comprehensive view of the Scientific Miracles' categories in the Noble Qur'an and the noble Prophet's Sunnah, and to develop it in its holistic faith and academic framework, in order to build an integrated and stable human being amid the winds of attacks of materialist and atheistic philosophies. and its effects on international and regional changes. And in our endeavor to benefit from the fruits of these great sciences, and to harness the tireless efforts of its men, and to build bridges of integration and cooperation between the various categories of science, we organized this conference under the slogan:

Islam is the religion of science, reason and safe refuge for humanity

The organizers of this event are looking forward to providing an integrated and comprehensive vision of the subject of the scientific miracles in order to cover the various scientific and academic axes related to it, and to highlight the precedence of revelation in its two parts in various fields of science and knowledge.

THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE SCIENTIFIC MIRACLES IN THE QUR'AN AND SUNNAH / ISTANBUL, TURKEY

We have chosen a slogan for the conference that affirms the divine revelation and the exaltedness of the noble prophetic Sunnah and their entitlement to lead humanity.

A slogan that is linked to the reality of the Islamic nation and the reality of humanity at this stage, and establishes a reality that is guided by the Noble Qur'an and the Prophet's Sunnah in the light of pure knowledge and sciences, and in all disciplines and walks of life.

And because the subject of the scientific miracles has gone beyond the stage of definition, the main focus of our conference in Turkey will be represented in the nature of the research that will be accepted for presentation at the conference, which is hoped will provide an original vision of many scientific, social and human issues that humanity is experiencing today.

Conference objectives:

- 1)) Presenting a comprehensive vision of the subject of the scientific miracles, by covering the various academic scientific axes related to it.
- 2)) Academic updating of the database of the scientific miracles in its various scientific axes
- 3)) Benefiting from the results of previous studies of these sciences, and making good use of them by employing them in the lived reality of Muslims and all of humanity.
- 4)) Building bridges of integration and cooperation between the various categories/axes of the scientific miracles in the Qur'an and Sunnah.
- 5)) Revealing the new development of authorship in the sciences of miracles in the Qur'an and Sunnah.
- 6)) Presenting descriptive, analytical and critical studies of the reality of authorship in its various aspects in the scientific miracles fields in the Qur'an and Sunnah, and improving the methods of authorship in the humanities.
- 7)) Developing curricula in the sciences of miracles in the Qur'an and Sunnah.
- 8)) Contributing to linking the sciences of miracles in the Qur'an and Sunnah with ethical and educational approaches, through the axis of miracles in the social sciences.

THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE SCIENTIFIC MIRACLES IN THE QUR'AN AND SUNNAH / ISTANBUL, TURKEY

- 9)) Providing an opportunity for researchers in all fields of academic knowledge to contribute to the issues of scientific miracles in the Qur'an and Sunnah.
- 10)) Contributing to the renewal of religious discourse in a way that suits the reality of the era and its human challenges.
- 11)) Benefiting from the scientific miracles in the Qur'an and Sunnah in the service of scientific authorship in the branches of science and knowledge.
- 12)) Upgrading contemporary scientific research and removing it from the circle of scientific clash/difference with religion to the circle of agreement between religion and science.
- 13)) The conference presents the Islamic alternative in the scientific educational field to remove the difference/clash between religion and science that has been enshrined by Western education on a global level.
- 14)) The conference presents its perceptions of the Islamic alternative in the economic field to find new opportunities to the crises afflicting the global economy.
- 15)) The conference presents its perceptions of Islamic solutions to the humanitarian crises that afflict global stability in general and the Islamic world in particular. This includes the legislative, legal, political, social and media fields.
